CITRUS EXCHANGE
WILL REMAIN IN THE GULF CITYOCALA MAN QUITE PROMINENT IN THE AFFAIRS OF THE ORGANIZATION

Z. C. Chambliss of this city, who was recently elected vice-president of the Florida Citrus Exchange, was elected vice president of the Grower's Supply company, and chairman of the organization committee of this company, at the meeting of the directors of the exchange in Tampa yesterday. The Grower's Supply company, to be organized along the lines of the like organization in California, will furnish the members of the citrus exchange with the growing, shipping and packing materials they need.

Mr. Chambliss and A. R. Sandlin, secretary of the sub-exchange here, who attended the meeting of the directors in Tampa, have returned from that city. By a vote of six to four the directors decided that the headquarters of the exchange should remain in Tampa. The special committee named to consider the removal of the headquarters consisted of Mr. Chambliss, F. W. Perry of Fort Myers, and Carlo Scarlette of DeLand. Mr. Chambliss and Mr. Perry filed a majority report to retain the headquarters in Tampa, and Mr. Scarlette filed a minority report to move the offices to Orlando. The majority report was adopted.

Dr. W. C. Richardson, who has been vice president of the proposed Grower's Supply company, and chairman of the committee on organization, tendered his resignation on account of bad health. Mr. Chambliss was elected in Dr. Richardson's place. The committee on organization will meet in Tampa next Tuesday to complete preliminary arrangements and to file the charter for the organization of the Grower's Supply company.

Mr. Sandlin says that the unofficial estimate is that the citrus crop for the state will this year run from 75 to 80 per cent of what it was last year. An official estimate will be published in a few days. The exchange, however, expects to ship more fruit than it did last season. Marion county's crop will run about the same as that for the state, according to Mr. Sandlin.

D. A. Tooke, of Floral City, who has a big grove near that place, will come to Ocala tomorrow to inspect the packing house of the Ocala Citrus association. Mr. Tooke has become a member of the association, and will ship from the packing house here. His fruit will probably be the first shipped from the packing house this season.

ORDERED A RECOUNT
IN ALACHUASupreme Court Says Canvassing
Board Must Reconvene When
It is Necessary

Tallahassee, Fla., September 21.—The Supreme Court yesterday afternoon granted the petition of W. W. Flournoy for an alternative writ of mandamus to compel the Alachua county canvassing board to count the vote for governor in precinct three of that county, but the court denied the motion to stay the preliminary writ to compel the state canvassing board to reconvene and recanvass the vote for governor.

The suggestion of Flournoy to stay the writ was not granted because the court can compel the state canvassing board to reconvene at any time, or a half dozen times, if necessary.

SILVER SPRINGS

Silver Springs, Sept. 20.—Mrs. W. A. Goin from Ocala was the guest of her mother, Mrs. J. L. Smoak one day this week.

Mr. R. D. Harrison is painting and repairing his launch the "Dixie," and has promised the young folks a picnic excursion down the river when it is finished.

Mr. E. Goolsby and family were at Sharp's ferry Thursday, driving over in their new car. While Mr. Goolsby talked "pig" Misses Pearl and Edna went fishing and succeeded in catching one specimen of the finny tribe.

Quite a number of young people braved the rainy weather Saturday evening to attend a peanut boiling at Mrs. Joel Terrell's home. Those who were fortunate enough to be present assure those who were not that they missed a very pleasant evening.

Mrs. L. L. Usry is enjoying a visit from her daughter, Mrs. Brown and two little sons from Pompano.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Teuton and family from Grahamville, were in Ocala Thursday. They stopped here to get little Miss Coralie Goolsby, who accompanied them to Ocala.

A pumber of Silver Springs children started school at Fort King Monday, their parents having despaired of getting a school here. "Bruce," the large bulldog of Mr. J. L. Smoak, caused a great deal of excitement in the homes of Mr. Bush and Mr. Goolsby Wednesday night. Both families were awakened about 12 o'clock by mournful barks from the direction of the barn which grew louder. At 2 a. m. Messrs. Bush and Goolsby went out to see why said mournful sounds didn't cease and found "Bruce" in a well that is at the fence between the two homes. A ladder was soon lowered and a rescue was effected. This is one of several narrow escapes "Bruce" has had recently, but he is still ruling the neighborhood.

Master Virgil Whaley, from Fort King, spent the day and night Sunday with little George Carothers, helping him celebrate his seventh birthday.

Miss Jewel Usry expects to return to Pompano with her sister, Mrs. Brown to attend school. Miss Jewel's friends will miss her greatly.
